Preserve The Commitment of Marriage and Family

The following can be practiced by adults and children in any home to uphold the commitment bond.

1. Help with the meals, when possible, then eat it together.
2. Take the garbage out without being asked.
3. Remember to say, "I love you," often, and mean it; not because you want something, but because you feel the love.

4. Share your dreams for the future. Listen to what your mate and children are saying, without interrupting or thinking of what you will say next. Don't allow your conversations to be one-sided.
5. Hold hands, not only in private, but also in public. The warmth of holding hands brings a lot of love and compassion between two people.
6. Give a surprise gift occasionally. It doesn't have to be expensive. The surprise alone will bring great joy.
7. Edify often and openly in front of other people.
8. Find things to joke and laugh about. Laughter is good medicine. Do something that is fun and spontaneous.
9. Never, never make plans without checking with your family members first. Always ask for their input in any decision making.
10. Say, "Thank you," often. Let them know that you appreciate all they do for you.
11. Should an argument arise during the day... resolve it BEFORE going to bed. Too many times, people get so angry that they decide not to speak for days on end. This solves nothing... it only adds to the resentment of the one who is angry, not to the one they think they are trying to get even with. The old saying is, "You can catch more flies with honey than you can with a lemon." Scripture says, "Do not let the sun go down on your wrath." God told us this for a reason, He knew what would happen in your body, mind, and spirit by holding on to anger.
12. Buy a special card or write a love note occasionally. They don't have to be long, just honest and sincere - heartfelt.
13. Find a project you and your family members enjoy and make time together to work at it.
14. Pray often together. Especially during times of crisis. Share scriptures the Lord may be showing you. Don't preach at each other, just share.

Commit to allow God to be God in your lives.

Youth Talk

“Are You A Chameleon?”

What do we do when we are around others? Are we chameleons who change our colors depending on our environment? Are we ourselves no matter who we are around?

Our Youth today face pressures that are far beyond what we can even imagine at this point. They deal with controversies over whether or not marijuana is okay, whether or not getting a tattoo is against God's best for them, whether or not having sex with someone of the same sex is okay or not, whether or not it's okay to be transgender, whether it's okay to drink alcohol or not, etc... These pressures are confusing to our Youth who are watching our churches and our states decisions on these subjects. The Youth say, “Well, it's legal...” or “Well, why do the other churches allow it and you don't? Is it because you are judgmental?”

The fact of the matter is we, as Christians and as followers of Christ, are going to stick out and be noticeable to others. Jesus stuck out to others yet redirected the attention to his Father who sent him. The question is, “Do you stick out, or are you a chameleon?”

What if we really did what we are SUPPOSED to be doing when we are together?

Ephesians 5:19 addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart.

What if every time I walked up to you I was singing to you... Do you think that I would stick out to you? OF COURSE I would! That's why Paul said to do it. We are to make great impact on our brothers and sisters as well as the entire world!

Are you shy? Are you reserved? When we allow God to speak through us, we are submitting to His plan and pleasure, NOT our own. We want to become fully mature, in accord, and of the same mind, the same love, etc...

Philippians 2:1-2 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the SAME mind, having the SAME love, being in full accord and of ONE mind.

Colossians 2:2 That their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ.

Don't be so shocked when we are singing in your face.... ;)

Recipe of the Month Chicken Boureki's

Ingredients:

1 Stick of butter	2 Small boxes of frozen chopped spinach
1/2 Cup of parmesan cheese	1 Cup of feta cheese
2 Eggs	2 Boneless skinless chicken breast
6 Slices of provolone cheese
Phyllo dough (freezer section with breads—Bi-lo or Walmart)
Defrost one sleeve in the box by putting into refrigerator overnight.

Directions:

- *Melt the butter and set aside
- *Cut each chicken breast into three equal pieces and set aside
- *Defrost the spinach and squeeze all the water out by hand and place the spinach in a bowl.
- *Add parmesan, feta, and eggs to the spinach and mix thoroughly with hand
- *Separate mixture in the bowl into six equal sections
- *Place 1/3 of the butter evenly onto a foil lined cookie sheet and smooth out by hand if necessary
- *Place two-three Phyllo dough sheets on a DRY, flat, clean surface
- *Place one of the pieces of chicken breast onto a corner
- *Place one of the six spinach sections on top of chicken, and put one piece of provolone on top of spinach
- *Roll immediately by turning over once, folding in the sides evenly, and then continue rolling to the end.
- *Make sure the chicken is at the bottom of the roll when placed onto a foil-lined cookie sheet
- *Do not let the Boureki's touch one another. Place at least an 1-2 inches between each one
- *Once all are rolled, gently rub all the remaining butter (with your hand) onto the tops of the Boureki's
- *Bake at 350 degrees for an hour or until golden brown

-NOTE: When making Spanakopita, use same spinach mixture minus the chicken and provolone... line your glass casserole dish with 1/2 the butter and place three Phyllo dough sheets in bottom; add spinach mixture about 1 to 1 1/2 inches thick, top with three sheets of Phyllo, and spread remaining butter on top with hand. Bake on 350 degrees until golden brown.

Why Flag Day is Important

America was founded as a "nation under God," and has been looked up to by other nations for over two hundred years. Unfortunately, other countries - and some of our citizens - are disgruntled with America today. Even though our reputation has taken some hits, we are still a strong country with high ideals and proud people.

There's a simple way you can help show that to the world - by flying the flag. Every time you put a flag out, you are saying, "I'm an American and proud of what this flag represents." The flag stands for "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," for religious freedom, and for other rights that many nations lack. The flag represents our history and our goals for a better future for all.

Flag Day is celebrated each year on June 14.

Fly your flag high!

You Are Anointed!

The anointing is God's presence, His essence. It's the thing that makes God be God. The anointing is God on flesh enabling flesh (you and me) to do those things that are impossible for flesh to do.

For instance, flesh can't heal anyone. Jesus' flesh couldn't heal anyone. His flesh came from Mary. It was as human as hers. Yet, His perfect, sinless flesh speaking the words of a perfect sinless God, caused God's anointing to be upon Him without measure (John 3:34).

It's not hard for our minds to grasp the fact that the anointing was upon Jesus. What's tough to comprehend is that the same burden-removing, yoke-destroying anointing that was on Him is available to us. God counts our flesh sinless if we will stay under the blood. That is grace... giving us the anointing when we don't deserve it! Jesus, Messiah, means "anointed" and He has not withheld anything from us. That same anointing has been given to us!

Just like Jesus couldn't heal in His own flesh, neither can you. But in the anointing, Jesus did bring healing, and so can you. Everything you need to do today can be done in the Anointed One and His Anointing. His anointing is on YOU. Because of it, you have been enabled to do things you couldn't normally do.

Whether it's day to day responsibilities or laying hands on someone and releasing the healing power of God, You can be and do everything God created you to be and do in His anointing. You are anointed, set apart. Speak the Word, "I have been anointed and given an unction by the Holy One." (John 2:20)

We are God's people, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14)

The greatest gift
I ever had came from God
I call him Dad

The Origin of Father's Day

One Sunday in 1909, Sonora Smart Dodd listened to a sermon honoring mothers. Her mother had died some years before, so her father had raised her by himself. Dodd wondered why there wasn't a day to honor fathers, so she arranged a tribute to her father at a church in Spokane, Washington. The date was June 19, 1910. Many people believe this was the beginning of Father's Day.

Another account holds that a West Virginia church held a tribute service for fathers in 1908, following a mine explosion that killed 360 people. Regardless of which story is correct, President Calvin Coolidge was the first president to designate a special day to honor fathers. In 1924, he proclaimed the third Sunday in June as Father's Day.

What is a Dad?

A dad is someone who wants to catch you before you fall but instead picks you up, brushes you off, and lets you try again.

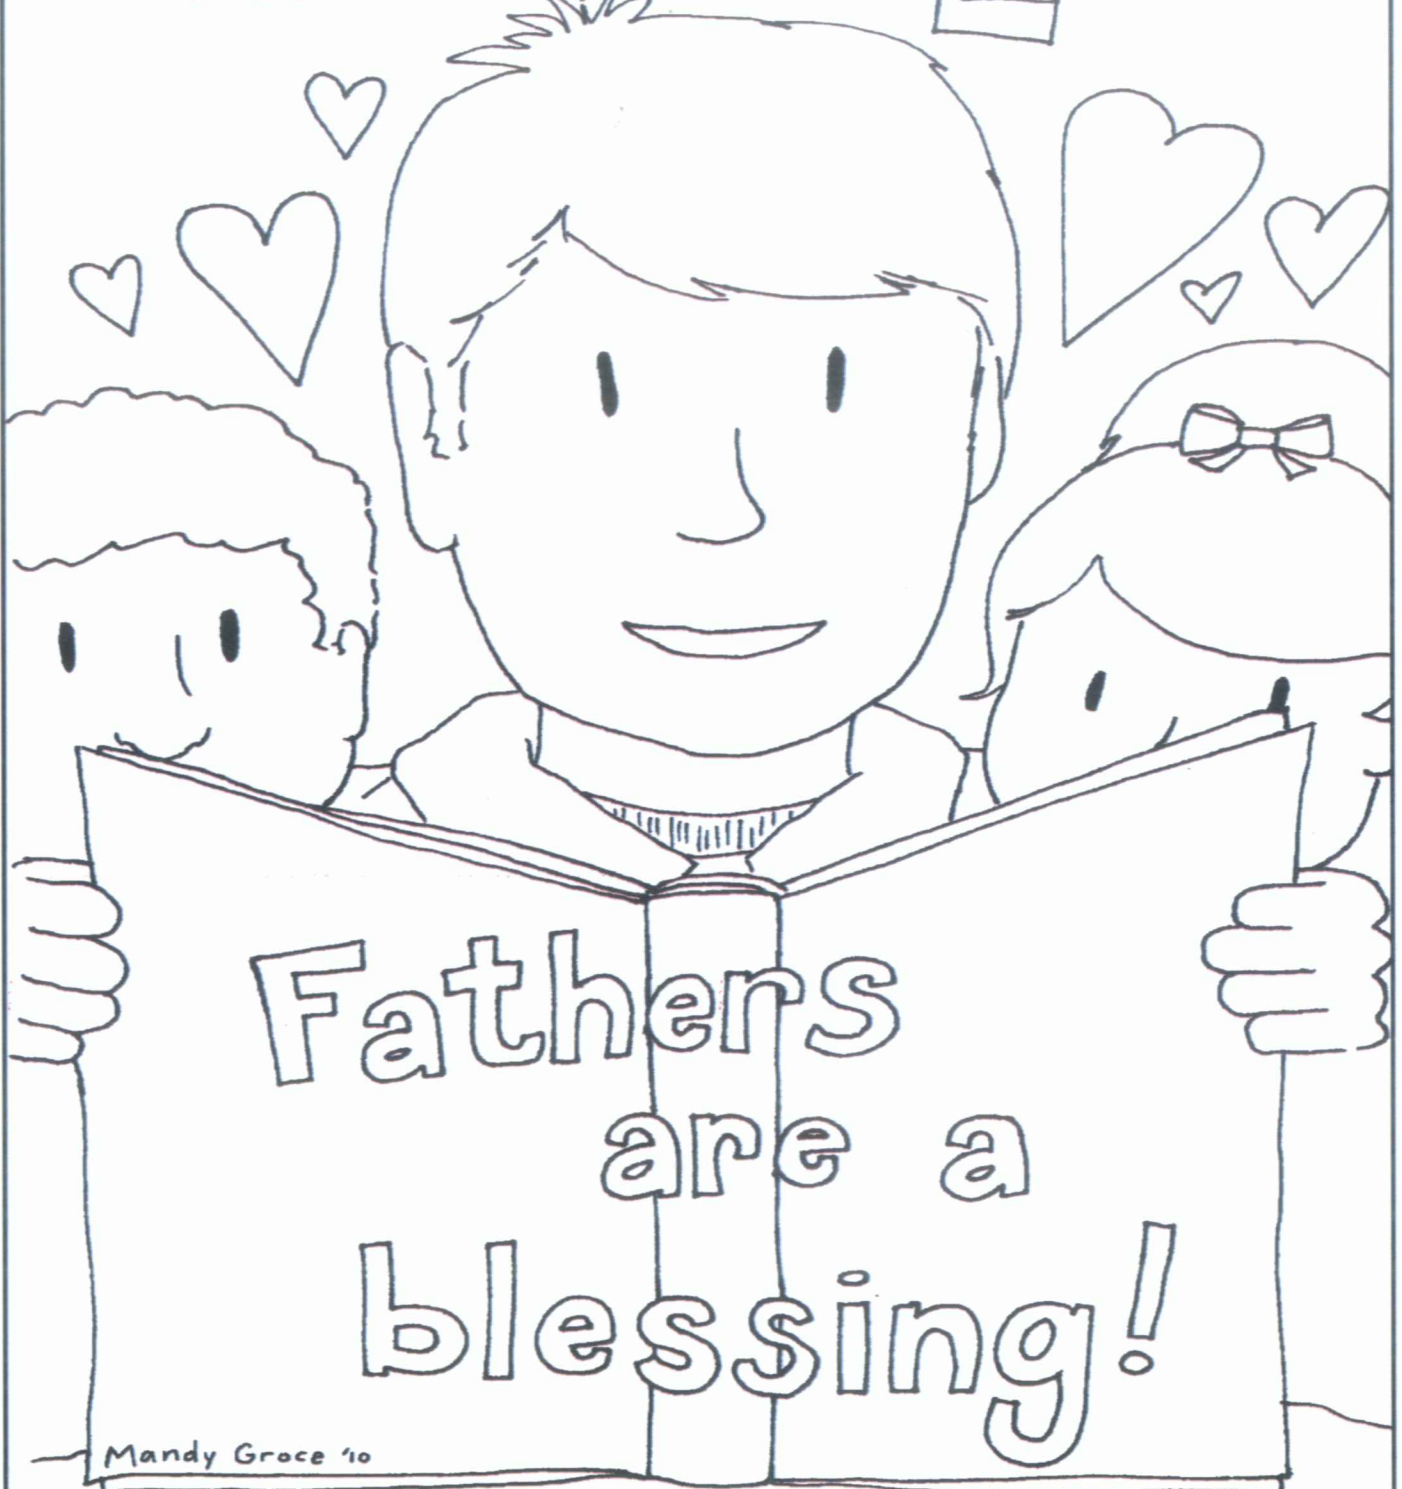

A dad is someone who wants to keep you from making mistakes but instead lets you find your own way, even though his heart breaks in silence when you get hurt.

A dad is someone who holds you when you cry, scolds you when you break the rules, shines with pride when you succeed, and has faith in you even when you fail.

Kids' Corner“John 5:1 - King James Version (KJV)”

¹After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

²Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

³In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

⁴For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

⁵And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

⁶When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

⁷The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

⁸Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

⁹And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

¹⁰The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

¹¹He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

¹²Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

¹³And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

¹⁴Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

¹⁵The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

¹⁶And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

¹⁷But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

¹⁸Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

¹⁹Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

²⁰For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

²¹For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

²²For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

²³That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

²⁴Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

²⁵Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

²⁶For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

²⁷And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

²⁸Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, ²⁹And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.words?

Health Check

JUNE is Men's Health Month!

Man Up! And take control of your health!

Anchored by a Congressional health education program, Men's Health Month is celebrated across the country with screenings, health fairs, media appearances, and other health education and outreach activities. The purpose of Men's Health Month is to heighten the awareness of preventable health problems and encourage early detection and treatment of disease among men and boys. This month gives health care providers, public policy makers, the media, and individuals an opportunity to encourage men and boys to seek regular medical advice and early treatment for disease and injury. The response has been overwhelming with thousands of awareness activities in the USA and around the globe.

Prevention:

Women are 100% more likely to visit the doctor for annual examinations and preventive services than men. (CDC 2001)

Silent Health Crisis

There is a silent health crisis in America...it's that fact that, on average, American men live sicker and die younger than American women."

Dr. David Gremillion
- Men's Health Network

Health Facts:

Men die at higher rates than women from the top 10 causes of death and are the victims of over 92% of workplace deaths. (BLS)

In 1920, women lived, on average, one year longer than men. Now, men, on average, die almost five years earlier than women. (CDC)

Depression and Suicide

Depression in men is undiagnosed contributing to the fact that men are 4 times as likely to commit suicide.

Among 15- to 19-year-olds, boys were 4 times as likely as girls to commit suicide.

Among 20- to 24-year-olds, males were 6 times as likely to commit suicide as females

The suicide rate for persons age 65 and above:
men...28.5 – women...3.9

Men as Victims of Homicide

The chance of being a homicide victim places African-American men at unusually high risk.
Chance of being a Homicide Victim*
1 in 30 for black males
1 in 179 for white males
1 in 132 for black females
1 in 495 for white females

“Go For Good Success”

“The blessing of the Lord makes one rich, and He adds no sorrow with it.”

- Proverbs 10:22

God does not want you to just experience success in your life. He wants you to experience good success. Is there such a thing as “bad success”?

Yes there is and I am sure you have seen it yourself. There are people who have plenty of money, but their lives are scarred by one broken marriage after another. There are also people who are so busy with their careers that they no longer have time to put their kids to bed nor spend any quality time with them. Being a public success but a private failure is not good success at all!

Good success comes from the Lord. It is success that has no sorrow or grief added to it. So depend on Jesus’ unmerited favor to bring you to a place of good success. Don’t say, “I’ll do it my way!” Let Him do it. Let Him open the right doors and close the wrong ones. Let Him put you at the right place at the right time. Keep your eyes on Him and not the things you have or want. This will keep you walking in the kind of success that truly blesses you and makes you a blessing to others.

The Vast Ocean Of His Abundant Supply

“And of His fullness we have all received, and grace for grace.”

- John 1:16

Something happens when you receive the abundance of God’s grace, lean wholly upon it and stop depending on your own efforts to see the results you want. The moment you surrender and say, “Lord, I cannot, but You can. Today, I rest in Your unmerited favor,” whatever demand that is upon you disappears into the vast ocean of His abundant supply.

Many a time, as I’m driving to church on Sunday morning, I feel the demand to preach a good message. The demand is real—more than 30,000 people in my congregation show up expecting to be well fed! That’s when I turn to Jesus and receive His abundance of grace. I say to Him, “Lord, today, You are my guest speaker! I rest in You. You speak. You feed them. You provide! You take over and I will watch You in action!” The moment I let go, His grace and His supply rush in!

Beloved, the more you keep receiving and meditating on the abundance of His grace toward you, the more you’ll walk in His abundant supply!

The Power Of Rhema

The word Rhema means "The spoken word." The spoken word is powerful! How powerful is it? Here are just a few facts about the power of "Rhema."

1. God's spoken word created the universe. (Hebrews 11:3)
2. Hearing the spoken word produces faith. (Romans 10:17)
3. The spoken word can get you saved. (Romans 10:9-10)
4. The spoken word can get you healed. (Luke 7:7)
5. The spoken word can bring life or death. (Proverbs 18:21)
6. The spoken word can heal bones. (Proverbs 16:24)
7. You'll be judged by the words you've spoken. (Matt. 12:37)

There's still more that can be done with the power of Rhema. Fill in the blanks in the poem below with the number beside the names of those listed to the right who have done incredible things with spoken words. You can use the same name more than once.

_____ spoke words and creation came together.

_____ spoke words that put an end to stormy weather.

_____ spoke words and a demon was ejected.

_____ spoke words and dry bones got connected.

_____ spoke words and a dead man was raised.

_____ spoke words, chains were broken when he praised.

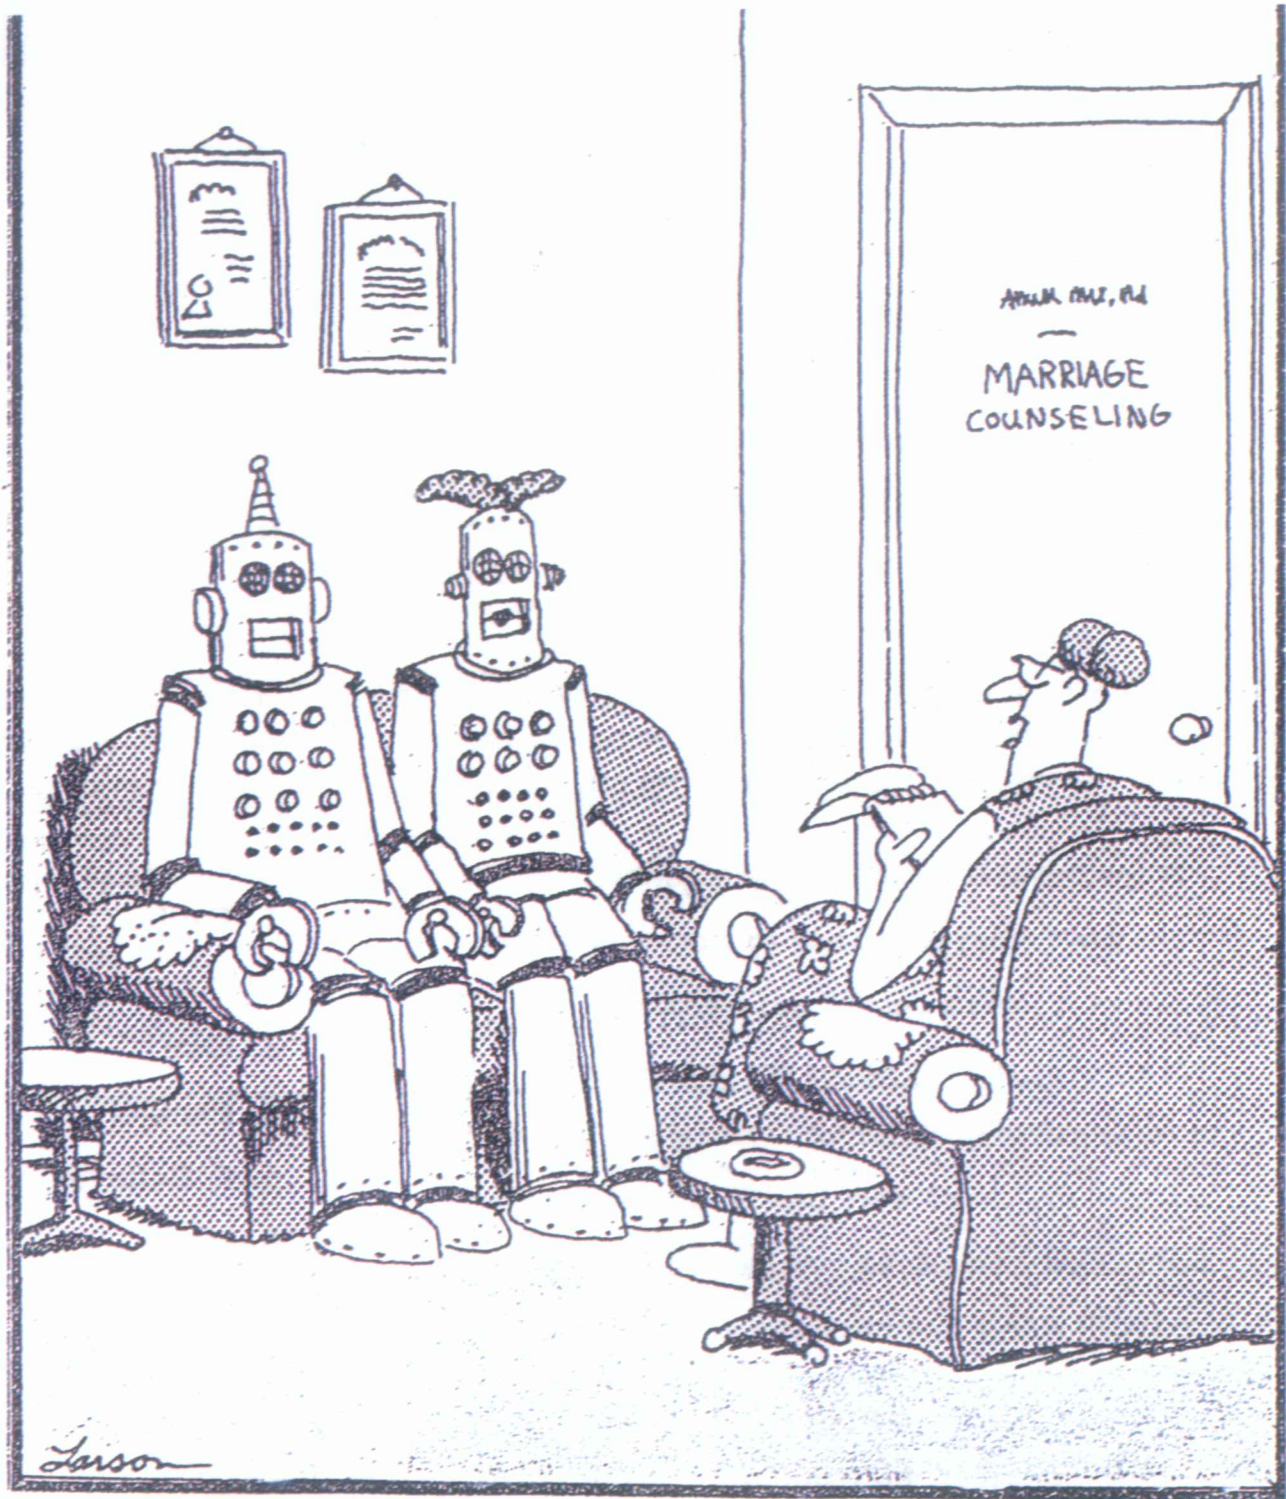

_____ spoke words and a lame man jumped up shoutin'.

_____ can speak words that can move a mountain.

1. Paul
2. Peter
3. God
4. Ezekiel
5. A Believer
6. Jesus

*Life imparted, blessing given, healing claimed, chains broken.
All this can be done when a Rhema word is spoken!*

Children's Sunday School

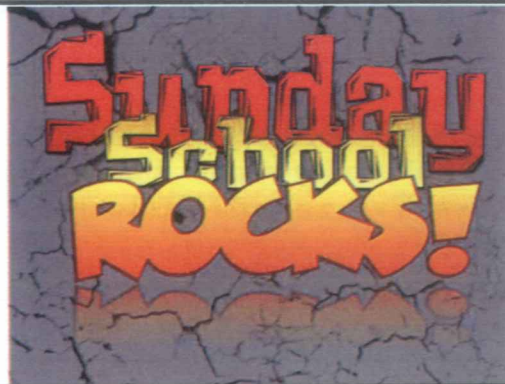

Ages 6-11

Hallelujah! It's summer!! Hopefully, schedules are freed up for most of you so we challenge you to bring your children to Sunday School. You as a parent are responsible for getting the Word into their beings. The Bible gives us the clear instruction to, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it," - Proverbs 22:6. When you utilize a free and available time of Bible lessons, discussion, and related fun for your children, you could save them from a potential difficult teenage and adult life. We are giving them life instruction straight from the Word of God. We are here to serve our Father, and in return, to serve each one of you. Our teachers spend time in the Word and plan a lesson each Sunday. We would love and be encouraged to have you and your kids join us!

We will be continuing our lessons in the Gospel of John. Specifically this month, we will be in John 5 discussing the man at the pool of Bethesda. There was a belief in that day that this pool would make the impotent, blind, withered, and sick people well. Jesus ran into a man there who was impotent, and Jesus said to him, "Rise, take up thy bed, and walk". Do you know what happened? The man did!! Interestingly, we see that the Jews were quick to point out that the law required no one to work on the Sabbath, but Jesus said that he must pick up his bed and walk. If the impotent man stayed bound to the law, he would have never received his healing. Jesus also had a job to do on the Sabbath, and nothing was going to stop him. We are to BELIEVE and RECEIVE all of the blessings He has for us. It's time to get out of our box!

In the latter half of June, we will be discussing the four witnesses to Jesus Christ. Under the Jewish law, it was required that there be two witnesses before any evidence could be counted true, but we will learn how there were actually four witnesses that Jesus was who He said He was. Briefly, and in case you are wondering, these four witnesses are John the Baptist, Jesus' works, the Father, and the Scriptures. We will go into more detail regarding these in Sunday School. My favorite passage in this chapter is John 5:24-25, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on Him that sent e, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live." Let's start living now!

Sunday School Events—Continued

Ladies Sunday School

We are now in a new month in our book. Lesson 9 Co-workers with the Truth. The lesson text comes from 3 John 1-14. The Lesson Focus will show us how to be like those who walk in truth. In the Life Connection we will discuss why we should carefully choose our role models. In the Bible Exploration we will learn what traits John said should characterize our role models. In the Bible Interaction we will discuss how our role models should walk in the truth. The Life Response will show us the ways in which we can model walking in the truth.

We can learn to live the Christian faith by walking with, listening to, and imitating God's faithful servants. Do you have any godly role models? The Shield of Faith Church and others will say that Pastor Bob and Sister Susan (Tilton) are at the top of their list of godly role models. They tell us AND show us how we are to live as Christians. They also show how we are to treat one another and how to witness to those who are lost. They are the ultimate role models of the godly character that John is talking about.

We look forward to seeing you on Sunday at 9:45am!

John said we have a choice of who we pick as our role models, and he urged his brothers in Christ to be like those who walk in the truth. God wants us to affect our world in positive ways. If we fail to embrace and follow examples of what it means to walk in the truth, we'll find our effectiveness diminished. We should not be "partners" with the world, "for you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord" (vs. 8). If we want our own lives to be models of godly character, we should look up to and follow those who walk in the truth. Our lives should only be modeled after good examples so we also are good models to others who want to see what it means to be a worthy follower of Jesus. I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. 3 John 1:4 (King James Version)
